

An innovative Industrial/Product Designer that is ever curious about how things work. Skilled at transforming concepts into tangible products through the process of conceptualising, 3D-modelling, prototyping, and visual storytelling. Adept at working with various materials with a proven ability to produce functional yet aesthetically pleasing and compelling products. Ever committed to continuous learning to stay ahead of evolving design trends and practices.

Experience

Design Intern @ Paper Carpenter [2017 - 2017]

- Mastered specialised 3D software
- Supported event operations

Design Intern @ Triple Eyelid [2024 - 2024]

- Operated professional woodworking tools
- Learnt and applied advanced joinery techniques

Founder of WhatTheFlipbooks [2025 - 2025]

- Founded and managed a small-batch flipbook business dedicated to handmade flipbooks
- Designed and optimised the end-to-end process from videos received to completed flipbooks
- Managed customer orders from inquiry to fulfillment, maintaining consistent quality and timely deliveries

Founder of Studio Nostalrique [2025 - present]

- Founded a design-led lifestyle brand inspired by Singapore's culture and leveraging on the concept of nostalgia, creating 3D-printed lamps that replicate iconic cultural snacks and landmarks of Singapore
- Designed brand logo and identity, ensuring consistent visuals and products
- Led end-to-end product development; from Concept ideation, 3D-modelling, Prototyping, Learning and tweaking of slicer settings, In-house production (3D-printing) of the lamps, Designing, printing and purchasing of packaging, Taking and editing pictures and videos for posts and reels, Marketing of brand and lamps online, Creating platforms to receive orders, Leveraging on delivery services, to Finally having customers receive the lamp
- Developed costing, pricing and margin models from filament usage, print time, packaging, to logistics
- Continuous iterated products and packaging based on customer feedbacks and sales data, refining form, finish, and lighting effects

Skills

3D modelling and visualisation

Rhino 3D, Keyshot, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop

Prototyping and fabrication

Wood joinery, Cardboard engineering, 3D printing, CNC techniques, manual bookbinding

Design communication

Concept ideation, Product rendering, User-centric storytelling, Portfolio presentation

Entrepreneurship and Business operations

- Small business management; branding, pricing, customer relations and fulfillment
- Social media marketing; Instagram growth, audience engagement, visual storytelling
- Event participation; pop-up space designing and planning, booth set-up, live customer interaction
- Professional tools; Documentation, excel to keep track of orders

Education

Diploma in Industrial Design

Nanyang Polytechnic, Singapore, 2015-2017

BA (Hons) in Product Design

Lasalle College of the Arts, Singapore, 2023-2025

Studio
Nostalrique:

